USE OF GENDER SPECIFIC FACILITIES

I am a transgender person and my gender identity, presentation, and conduct is lawful and protected under ONTARIO HUMAN RIGHTS LEGISLATION.

I have the RIGHT and indeed it is most proper for me to use the gender specific facilities such as washrooms and changerooms of the gender that I am presenting and self identify with. If another user of such a facility is uncomfortable with my presence and complains then the management of that facility is obliged to accomodate them with alternate arrangements. Please go to http://www.ohrc.on.ca and for more details regarding my rights and your legal obligations. Please be aware that refusing me use of my choice of gender specific facilities may result in a formal complaint being lodged against you and formal charges being laid.
